STIR TO GO ON

ers. We reject it," said Jagjit Singh Dalalwal, who heads the BKU (Ekta Sidhupur).

"The Centre says something else in the discussions and while speaking at the press conference outside, they say different things. We have not given any proposal. We will move towards Delhi on February 21 at 11am," added Sarwan Singh Pandher, the general secretary of KSMC.

Pandher said that they still stand on their main demand of a legal guarantee of MSP on all 23 crops. He added that the government's proposal to give MSP for only five years on selected crops was a step closer to contract farming - which was unacceptable.

The agitation led by the two outfits is over a raft of demands such as a law to guarantee that the crop is sold at a price that the government proposed the Cotton Corporation of India will buy cotton from farmers at MSP for five years after entering into a legal agreement with them.

On Monday evening, while rejecting the offer, Dalalwal said the groups were sceptical of the promises. "The reason for not accepting government's proposal (on MSP guarantee) is that they said during the meeting that they will buy all the crops of the country, but at the press conference outside, they said a totally different thing. This means this is some kind of injustice with the farmers. They said that ₹1.5 lakh crore will be spent to ensure MSP on pulses. But our expert said that this is completely wrong," he said, retreating a "request to hold a peaceful protest (march to Delhi)".

The cultivators were also angry at the Punjab chief minister Bhagwant Singh Mann - who was part of the meetings - and the condition, doesn't agree by any means, Haryana too will join the agitation."

KEJRIWAL

cognisance of the same which means that the court has prima facie accepted that Kejriwal has done an offence for which he is liable to be prosecuted," said a senior ED official, who asked not to be named.

The Rouse Avenue court on Saturday granted Kejriwal an exemption from personally appearing in court in that case till March 16.

Kejriwal appeared before the court virtually, submitting that he could not physically appear due to the ongoing Budget session and the confidence motion in the House.

AAP chief national spokesperson Priyanka Kakkar said not a "single penny" has been recovered from Kejriwal. "ED has already moved the court against the CM and he has violated 10 summons and even went to court, but was arrested because he could not answer ED's questions. Kejriwal will also have to answer ED's questions in the excise policy case," Delhi BJP chief Vinod Kumar

Kejriwal during the Budget session on Monday.
